Procedures for dealing with inappropriate choices of behaviour in the playground

Violent / aggressive behaviour as identified by the school will be dealt within the Department of Education & Training (DET) policy and the principal or delegate may choose to begin the process at any step within the procedure.

All playground misdemeanours are entered on Sentral by the teacher on duty.

If misdemeanour is considered serious enough, the child is to be sent to Reflection Room the next recess.

Each classroom teacher is to monitor the frequency of misdemeanours recorded for each student in their class or staff on Reflection Room duty inform the class teacher that there is a pattern developing.

After 5 misdemeanours, over 2 terms, the classroom teacher must consult with their supervisor and parents contacted. The PBL team must be informed when this occurs.

If further misdemeanours occur the Principal needs to be informed and may consider in consultation with supervisors:
- Referral to the School Learning Support Team
- Presuspension letter
- In school withdrawal
- Restorative Justice
- Withdrawal from playground

If behaviour continues:
- Suspension.
- Return to school resolution meeting.

Further suspensions or expulsion.

If behaviour continues.
